

“THE NEW HEAVEN AND NEW EARTH”

Lesson 53

1. The word _____ is used in the Bible _____ times.
2. Of the 600 times the word “heaven” is used comparatively _____ refer to _____ heaven, His _____. Acts 7:49
3. The Bible speaks of _____ heavens and in the original languages of _____ (Old Testament) and _____ (New Testament) those six words are all translated Heaven.
 - A. The _____ heaven _____.
Genesis 1:20
 - B. The _____ heaven home of the _____.
Genesis 1:14 and 15
 - C. The _____ the _____
of God. Genesis 28:17; Revelation 12:10; Revelation 21:2
4. Only _____ men have caught a glimpse of heaven and give a _____ of what they saw.
 - A. _____ II Corinthians 12:1-9
 - B. _____ Acts 7:54-59
 - C. _____ Revelation 4:1-11; Revelation 19:11-16
5. Heaven is a _____, _____ place of which Jesus, Himself, spoke. John 14:1-3
6. As believers our _____ is in heaven and we are _____ on the earth. Philippians 3:20; 1 Peter 2:9-12
7. Heaven maintains a _____. Matt. 13:26; Luke 12:2 & 3; Revelation 20:12-15
8. Heaven is a place of _____. Revelation 14:13
9. Heaven is a place of _____ where all care is _____ and every _____ is supplied. Revelation 21:3 & 4
 - A. God Himself shall be _____.
 - B. He will be _____.
 - C. He will _____ all tears.
 - D. There will not be anymore _____.

- E. There will be _____.
- F. There will be _____.
- G. No more _____.
- H. The _____ things are _____.

10. There will be a _____ and a _____. Rev. 21:1

11. The “_____” means redemption and _____ as opposed to _____ and _____.

12. The _____ used here refers to _____ of one place or kind to another.

* To illustrate this word’s meaning would be a ship “passing through” the sea and over the horizon but would not mean the extinction of the ship. Or a man can “pass through” a door and you can’t see him anymore, but that doesn’t mean he has been annihilated. Therefore, the first heaven and the first earth were “passed away” means that they were changed from one condition to another.

13. The heaven and earth are here, but _____, redeemed, _____.

14. Before there can be a new heaven and a new earth _____ must be _____. II Peter 3:6, 7, 10, 12 & 13

15. The old earth has been _____ by sin and _____.

16. What is the _____ like?

- A. It is the _____ of the _____. Rev. 21:9
- B. It will _____ from above. Rev. 21:10
- C. It will shine with _____. Rev. 21:11
- D. It will have _____ and _____. Rev. 21:12 & 13
- E. It will be _____ long, wide, and high with a _____ foundation. Rev. 21:16

17. The city is gold in its _____ and _____. Rev. 21:18 & 21

18. There is _____ of a _____ to worship God for God is there amongst His people. Rev. 21:22

19. Jesus is the _____ of heaven. Rev. 21:23-25

20. The _____ proceeds out of God’s throne. Rev. 22:1

21. We will eat the fruit of the _____. Rev. 22:2

22. We will _____ God. Rev. 22:3

23. Jesus said “behold _____” and our response as believers should be “even so Lord Jesus _____.”

Heaven is the place Jesus has prepared for all who trust Him. It is actual, literal, eternal. It is indescribable in the English language. The Lord God will redeem the heaven and the earth -- renovate it, change it, purify it -- just as He has done before. The church, the bride of the Lord Jesus, will have a vital role in heaven. There, Jesus will let us be a part of the great invitation to the last to “come.” We shall serve Him. We shall be busy. The last words of Jesus on the earth are in Revelation 22:20. The next time we hear the voice of the Son of Man will be when He comes secretly, as a thief in the night, to take out His pearl of great price.

The final benediction: “The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.”

(As we conclude this study, it is our prayer that the Lord will use the 52 lessons to make you fall in love with the Bible. When you reach that point of excitement about His Word, you will become a witness, a helper, a teacher, a worker for the Lord. Let the Holy Spirit teach you and guide you as you grow in grace.)